

'BAD' FORMULA — This is the General Pershing school on Hanover street, oldest building still standing in the Jefferson Elementary School district. It faces eventual destruction, when and if the school district is successful in acquiring 10 acres of property for a new school. School administrators explain the present building's inadequacy in these terms: 400 students attend the school, which is located on .75 acres. State recommended acreage for 400 students is nine acres. The state reportedly will not give financial assistance for the new school unless it is built on the recommended acreage. Despite the pupil-teacher ratio, it appears students will still be attending old General Pershing for at least two more years, while local and San Francisco officials debate the Jefferson district's so-called "land grab" of San Francisco property.

S.F. Asks High Level Meet

A high level parley of San Francisco, state and Jefferson Elementary School district representatives was called for Wednesday to effect a compromise on the Jefferson district's request for a 10-acre school site, portions of which lie in San Francisco.

Local trustee Hartley Appleton and Superintendent H. Z. Weibel appeared before a committee of San Francisco county supervisors this week, at the latter's behest.

Chairman James Leo Halley suggested supervisors and school board members from San Francisco, Jefferson school district and representatives of the state departments of finance and education confer on the problem of acquiring land for a new Gen. Pershing school.

Schools, Council Set Public Budget Meets

Public hearings on more than $4 million in budgets for the two local school districts will be held next week.

Full breakdown on the record $2,247,019 Jefferson Union high school district budget for 1957-58 is scheduled next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the superintendent's office, 375 South Mayfair, room 214.

Each budget item will be presented by Supt. Ed Morgan and Fred Goodell, district business manager.

Additional action will be taken to set aside certain general and bond funds for critical projects.

The peak 1957-58 budget includes $900,000 in reserves

1441 Get 'Final' Polio Shot

A total of 1441 young adults and children took advantage of the free polio shots offered Saturday at the Daly City community center by the San Mateo county health department.

The first clinic here saw 1368 taking the vaccine, bringing the total for the Daly City area to 2809. Saturday was the final clinic scheduled for Daly City.

Breakdown of the total for the two clinics showed 1357 receiving the vaccine one time, 946 two times, and 506 undergoing the full three-treatment series. Those who have undergone two shots will have to wait at least seven months before completing the series.

The county's program will close this month and is not expected to resume next year, because of a shortage of vaccine.

35 Teachers Resign In Year

Resignations of 16 more teachers were accepted by Jefferson Elementary school district trustees last week, bringing the "departure list" to 35 since the semester ended in June.

Leaving the district are: Florence Forges, Barbara Sharp, Eugenia Caravacci, Gabriela Kollas, Beverly Cohen,

Will Poll Teachers Who Quit

In order to determine the main reasons teachers are leaving Jefferson Elementary school district, Citizens Committee for Better Schools has prepared a questionnaire for personnel who have recently quit here.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel and the board of trustees, on record favoring "constructive surveys," are studying the questionnaire before final approval.

The committee stipulated, "through this study, we hope to find the means to increase the 'holding power' of this district and thereby help the district build a more permanent teaching staff."

In the questionnaire are sections on salary, previous training, double sessions, family situation, and rating charts to determine how the former instructors evaluated the program and administration.

School Trustee's Hubby Pays $250 For Drunk Caper

Salesman John E. Wimberly, husband of a Jefferson Elementary school district trustee, paid a $250 fine in municipal court Tuesday after the judge found him guilty of drunk driving in Westlake on May 25.

Wimberly, 892 North Mayfair, demanded the trial June 11 when he maintained his innocence on the charge.

The salesman was taken into custody by Officer Lionel Hess after the latter spotted his car near Westlake shopping center.

Wimberly failed to pass a sobriety test, according to the police report.

DC Mom To File Suit For Return Of Two Daughters

A 22-year-old Daly City woman is prepared to file a civil suit in Crescent City for the return of her two daughters, 6 and 4, who were put out for adoption two years ago by her former husband.

Mrs. Joyce Blake, 289 Flournoy street, claims her first husband, Jerrel N. Burrow, 29, now serving time at Ft. Ord for being AWOL, released the girls for adoption without her consent and refused to say where they were living.

Mrs. Blake married Burrow in 1950. They separated three years later and were divorced in 1955.

After two years of searching, Mrs. Blake this May learned that the girls were residing in Crescent City.

A superior court judge, getting no response from Mrs. Blake on abandonment proceedings published in a Crescent City newspaper, made the adoptions final.

Sherry, the oldest girl, is living with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuman, who live just outside Crescent City. Melinda was placed in legal custody of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beller of Crescent City.

Key Improvements Set For Traffic On Alemany

Contract for installing major traffic regulation devices on five intersections on Alemany boulevard in Westlake was let by state division of highways Friday.

Low bidder was Abbott Electric of San Francisco, with a proposal of $39,673, of which the city will pay approximately $13,000, the state the remainder.

Work on the intricate signal installation, which will include pedestrian wait-walk devices at all intersections, is scheduled to start in about 10 days. Contract calls for completion in 75 working days.

New two-phase signals will be installed on the Sheffield and Dorchester intersections in Westlake, scene of many traffic accidents. Both of these intersections will also have wait-walk signals for pedestrian traffic.

Existing signals at Lake Merced boulevard will be modified with wait-walk signals, as will the Cliffside crossing.

At Junipero Serra boulevard's juncture with Knowles avenue and Alemany boulevard, signals will be installed to separate left-turn traffic movement east-bound from Alemany and west-bound from Knowles. Traffic jams occur here almost daily as vehicles attempting to turn left are snarled with traffic going straight through on either Alemany or Knowles.

On Junipero Serra the left-turn phase for north and south bound traffic will be separated, so that if there is no left-turn traffic in either of the lanes, through traffic will be allowed to proceed. Under the present operation both left-turn lanes operate at once, even though there may be no vehicles in one of the lanes.

Weibel In Plea For 2 Signals

Jefferson Elementary school district has joined the crusade to get traffic signals for the dangerous Westridge and Westmoor intersections at Skyline boulevard.

In a letter to the state division of highways, Supt. H. Z. Weibel urged "some positive means of traffic control for the children who cross the boulevard from West of Skyline."

He also cited the Westmoor avenue signal needs, reiterating Supt. Ed Morgan's concern for high school youngsters west of Skyline who will be walking to Westmoor High.

Weibel pointed out that completion of Vista Mar school, off Bradley drive, early next year will mean that approximately 150 elementary children will be crossing Skyline daily.

"If the means of traffic control is to be traffic control lights, construction of the lights should begin well enough in advance so they will be in operation when needed," Weibel told the state.

In the case of the Westmoor intersection, the superintendent said that future elementary schools will be constructed east of Skyline and elementary children will need to cross at Westmoor.

Westlake Improvement Association was turned down in its recent quest for traffic signals at the two intersections. The association, however, next month will again submit its plea for the signals.

Would Harass Drivers In 'City' Limits

A plan to "sabotage" the Mussel Rock fill and cover dump by making Daly City Scavenger company's cost of operation prohibitive through extra-rigid enforcement of traffic regulations was revealed today by a spokesman for the proposed Coastside city of Pacifica.

Mayor Joseph Verducci promptly termed the statements "unprofessional and unethical," presaging a possible municipal "war" between the neighboring communities of Daly City and "Pacifica."

The dump site, which is scheduled to start operation in about two weeks, is located within the Daly City limits and scavenger trucks will use the Coast Highway to transport garbage.

But should the Coastside communities incorporate as the City of Pacifica and the Coast highway be abandoned, all Daly City Scavenger garbage trucks would be routed over the Edgemar road, which would place them within Pacifica's city limits.

Harass Drivers

The spokesman, one of the leaders in the coast community's incorporation drive, said that in this event, Pacifica could harass the company's truck operation enough to make cost of operation prohibitive.

He elaborated by pointing out that police officers could tail each truck through the city limits, citing drivers if the truck so much as went one inch over a white line, one mile over the speed limit, did not hesitate quite long enough at an arterial stop or for any other minor infractions of city ordinances.

If there were enough citations and fines were stiff enough, he said, the garbage firm would not long be able to maintain the dump at the Mussel Rock site, which is just north of the heavily populated Coastside communities.

Final DC Valuation Reported

County figures on Daly City's sizeable increase in assessed valuation were confirmed today by City Clerk Evelyn Mosman. She will submit the finalized assessment roll to the city council next Wednesday when they sit as the board of equalization to adopt the 1957-58 tax rate.

She reported total assessed valuation after exemptions at $30,800,245, up nearly $26,000,000 over last year's $26,007,515. The final figure places Daly City's valuation slightly above the county's estimate, which was $32,530,573, including public utilities and unsecured property, which have not yet been tabulated by the city.

Approximately $4,000,000 more will be added to the city's rolls when public utilities and unsecured property are totaled, each of the categories estimated at $2,000,000.

Mrs. Mosman's report included a breakdown of values in every subdivision in the city.

Her figures showed the total value of Westlake for tax purposes as $16,144,730, compared the Edgemar freeway link between the coast and Skyline boulevard will spell the doom of the costly, ill-fated highway that borders the ocean from Daly City to Edgemar.

The city council is scheduled to consider the contract with the scavenger company next Wednesday at study session and final approval is expected at the August 12 meeting. Dump operation will start immediately after the contract is formally approved.

Coastiders had even appealed to Gov. Knight to block the dump operation. Since the site is in Daly City, there is virtually nothing the irate Coastiders can do now but wait until they have jurisdiction over operation of the garbage trucks, should incorporation become a reality.

"Other Motive"
Verducci said the Coastiders' strategy "must have some motive behind it other than the mere location of the dump. I don't see how we're hurting these people down there. We've spent years to acquire an adequate site for our people. I personally don't like these threats and consider the remarks unprofessional and unethical. We'll fight them all the way."

"The real purpose of this whole ridiculous campaign is politics—to stir up an emotional appeal in order to sway Coastiders to vote for incorporation. It's all an emotional fight talk being promoted by a few schemers."

to $14,655,515 for the remainder of Daly City.
Value of land alone in Westlake was placed at $3,759,215, slightly lower than land value for the balance of the city, $3,825,730, despite the recent re-appraisal of land in Westlake.

Westlake improvements, however, were valued at $14,365,885, against $12,093,855 for Daly City property outside the new subdivision. Exemptions on these two areas were $1,980,370 and $1,584,780, respectively.

On the basis of the new assessed valuation, Daly City will receive approximately $70,000 more in property taxes this year over the 1956-57 period.

1441 Get Final Polio Shot

Daly City residents who have not been vaccinated or who wish to receive their second shot still have time to take advantage of the clinic held each Wednesday at the San Mateo county headquarters, 225 37th avenue, from 5 to 8 p.m. This program will continue through August.

Another clinic, also available to local residents, will be held in South San Francisco August 10 at Los Cerritos school from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

County-wide, 115,000 persons have received the polio vaccine since the program was started last March.

Those who have not completed the series must arrange with their physician for the second or third shots.

'Kangaroo Court' Victim, 39, Was Arrested In DC

Robert Young, 39-year-old wanderer murdered by punks Saturday night in a "kangaroo court" plot at county jail, was serving a 10-day sentence after being booked in Daly City for vagrancy.

The unemployed "machinist," listing his hometown as Bellevue, Illinois, had a long record, including arrests in some 14 states. He previously had been incarcerated for theft, assault, larceny, burglary, possession of concealed weapons and escape.

Coroner Paul Jensen has ordered an inquest next week, while Sheriff Earl Whitmore is ready to bring in the grand jury for a full investigation of "conditions" at county jail.

Young's six "executioners" face a maximum sentence of death—for premeditated murder.

OPPERMANS COP 'FATHER-SON' GOLF TOURNEY

Daly City's Richard and Steve Opperman Sunday captured the seventh annual Roos Brothers Northern California Father & Son tournament at Golden Gate park.

Dad Dick and his 15-year-old son cinched the title with a 4 and 3 triumph over Fred and Gene Miranda of Oakland.

During the finale, Steve sank five putts of more than 20 feet, including two birdies on the finishing run.

Playgrounds Really Buzzing!

(Following are weekly park and playground reports, written by recreation leaders and released by Daly City recreation department.)

Lincoln Playground
The Lincoln softball team, in the American League, lost its first two games. Lincoln lost its debut to War Memorial, 21-2. Seven Lincoln errors contributed to the War Memorial cause.

The second game, an extra inning affair, was won by Jefferson, 16-14. At the bottom of the fourth inning, Lincoln was ahead, 11-3, but Jefferson came back and tied the game at the end of the regulation seven innings, finally winning in the eighth. Feature was the hitting of Lincoln's center-fielder, Doug Thomas, who had 3 for 3, including a home run, and six RBI's.

Other activities during the week were the Lion's Club fishing trip at Lake Merced, and the Carnival at Marchbanks.

Story-telling, movies and arts and crafts were other activities conducted. The arts and crafts class featured various objects of clay, ash-trays, free-form et cetera.

Lincoln's softball team was handed its third straight league defeat by Edgewood playground, 2-1.

Leading Edgewood hitters were DeRose and Kulich, who each had 2 for 3, while for Lincoln, Steve Deuschel had a perfect 3 for 3, and Colino 2 for 3. Totals: Edgewood—8 hits, 2 runs, 2 errors, and Lincoln—6 hits, 1 run, and 3 errors.

Many children from Lincoln are participating in auditions for the Talent Show later this summer. Auditions are held every Monday morning at 11 at Crocker School under the supervision of Mrs. Kay Irvine.

During the week, children enjoyed story-telling, free movies at Crocker School, arts and crafts, and a trip to the Jefferson High to compete in Jr. Olympics Day.

Thursday is skating day with a trip to the beach. Other activities will include softball, basketball, ping-pong, tetherball and checkers, and coloring for the younger children.

Westlake School
In the City softball league, Westlake School downed Westlake Park, 9-6. Leading hitters for Westlake School were: Martin Jaspovic (3 for 4), Steve Lamanet (1 for 3), Jim Fotenos (1 for 2), and Skipper Smith (1 for 2). Westlake School had two big innings, the third and fourth, in which they scored 7 of their 9 runs. Rich Pagano got credit for the win while only giving up 8 hits. Other players: Buzzy Ewing, Rich Ostrow, Larry Siegel, Dennis Mori and Rich Levy.

In the city-wide Jr. Olympics, those who participated were: Mary Ann Crowley, Ray Ciardella, Douglas and Geoffrey Becker, Greg Agar, Larry Siegel, and Frank Knowlton.

First round of our paddle pool and checker tournaments are completed. First round winners in paddle pool: Bob Ritter, Sherry Asaro, Susan Banchi, Judy Moore, Buzzy Ewing, Bill Hage, and Frank Knowlton. First round winners in checkers: Joseph Coccellato, Bill Hage, Dan Alberti, Judy Moore, Mary Ann Woodall, and Janet Coyne.

Parents have been generous in helping Mr. Mendoza supervise the multi-purpose room. Thanks go to the following mothers: Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. H. Goebel, Mrs. John Eiler, Mrs. George Arabian, Mrs. Chalois, Mrs. Mori, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Crowley. Anyone interested in helping out for an hour or two a week should contact Mrs. Albert Smith, PL 5-6436 or Mendoza, playground director.

Last week's winners in the doll show: Novelty dolls: Donna Morin, Clare Goebel, Mary Ann Woodrow, Sandra Bizzo, Tommy Asaro.

Bride Dolls: Ellen Tirandos, Barbara Weiden, Mary and Kelly Crowley, Carol Perich, Betty Thorne.

Foreign Dolls: Annette Mennichini, Clare Goebel, Sandra Bizzo, Sunny Hersman, Robin Ramus, Judy Moore, Mary Jo Gordon.

Storybook Dolls: Janice Coyne, Susan Banchi, Sharon Ellingson, Ellen and Dona Tirandos, Cathy Batranno, Kathy Sarubbi.

Other winners: Sherry Asaro, John Asaro, Donna Morin, Linda Hallett, Robin Ramus, Nancy Siegel, Linda Taylor, Jessica Becker.

Thanks to Judges, Mrs. George Arabian and Mrs. H. Goebel.

George Arabian and Mrs. H. Goebel.

Westlake Park
Activities at Westlake Park still continue to attract many youngsters. Archery, arts and crafts, quiet games, folk dancing, boxing and tumbling, nature study, and the rhythm band are at their peaks.

Archers Gary Texeria and Bobby Green improve each week in this sport of skill. Steven Romero, Marshall Torre and Peter Keelen have picked up a strong beat in the band. The arts and crafts portion of our activity program consisted this week of copper and aluminum tooling. Nice work was exhibited by Joel Wine, Kitty Carey and Greg Bundros. In our nature study hour, several participants illustrated "green thumbs" when the bean seeds broke through the soil and showed a growth of two inches.

Bobby Colburn, Steven Shay, and Jo Anne Santuccio put on their hiking shoes to partake in the annual Carnival at Marchbanks. Upon arrival at the little Mardi Gras, they were greeted with gay colored booths, many prizes, refreshments, and the famed mystery house. The Westlakers ended their long day with a trek back to the park—tired, but happy.

This week we pay tribute to David Romero as "Personality of the Week." David attends Westlake School in the fifth grade. He is interested in many activities. His main ambition is to become an architect.

Last week, the Westlakers searched through the family albums to find a photograph to enter in the Baby Picture Contest. Voting for the best picture was done by children. Peter "Baby Face" Pollard won top honors, while John "Rosey-Cheek" Romero, Ruth Ann Dunn, and Debbie Romero were runners-up.

Last Friday, all put on their dancing shoes to attend the "Pop Party." Michael Salzberg, Julie Romero, and Michael Keelen did a wonderful job in making the event so successful.

Calling all talent. Can you sing, dance, play an instrument, or do anything else? If so, sign up now so that you can audition for the playground talent show, with winners moving to the city-wide talent show.

Westlake School softball team whipped Westlake Park, 9-6. The team won over Ben Franklin for forfeit, while the 11-and-under team defeated the Ben Franksteins. Final score, 19-1. Next week Westlake plays Colma School.

Last week Westlake Park journeyed to Jefferson High for the Junior Olympics. Westlake picked up 31 points to tie Crocker for fourth place. Steven Funai, Peter Pollard, Carl Steigerwald, Mike Terol, Bill Robinson and Carol Solari placed in the events, while Julie and David Romero, Joanne Santuccio, Michael Funai, and Ken Solari were unsuccessful in the day-long competition. Westlake Park won the boys' "B" division with 20 points.

This week, Westlake Park salutes Joann Pollard as the "Personality of the Week." This fifth grade, blue-eyed lassie from Westlake School can be seen daily at the Park participating in the activities. Her friendliness has attracted a wide circle of friends and her eagerness to help is present always.

War Memorial
Tournaments began this week with approximately 100 entries. Chess, ping pong, paddle pool, shuffleboard and checkers are for children 12 years and younger. The teenagers (13 and over) have added badminton to their list.

These 12 and under children are listed on almost every entry form: Beverly and Jimmy Kearney, Richard Cruz, Mike Cagari, Bob Molossi, Bob Dyer, Barry Morgan, Doug Monyhun, Jerry Senkir, Terry Massei, Leo Pinnatore, Terry Page and Chantal St. Gassies.

The teen-agers try to rule each tournament, too. These names are on all the entries: Diane Betelli, JoAnn Aiello, Mary Lou and Don Miller, Mike Brush, Bill Hopman, Aleida Gruver, Terrell Ogburn, Peter Jacobson, John Uinal, Mike Nolan, George Ojakian, J. B. Barry, Art Banos, Bill Whalen, Bob Barry and Bob Wisman.

Community Center won its second straight softball game in the American League. Crocker was unable to field a full team.

Woodburning has attracted 25 youngsters to our arts and crafts classes on Mondays and Fridays. Orlando and Ronald Lacayo are undecided which one should make a pin or key chain for their Mother. Next week we will make mosaics.

Our checker champion is in the 12-or-under classification is Danny Craig. He defeated Chantal St. Gassies in a two-of-three match. In shuffleboard finals are Mike Cagari and Danny Craig. The ping pong semi-finals: Jim Kearney vs. Bob Molossi and Barry Morgan vs. Danny Craig. Paddle pool finals will pit the winner of Mary Smith vs. Jerry Senkir against Jimmy Kearney.

In the 13-and-over classification, we have Bob Wisman vs. the winner of Bill Hopman—Don Miller in ping pong finals. Don Miller, George Ojakian and Tim Curtin lead the free throw contest with 20 out of 25. George Ojakian has 18 in a row.

Our softball team won their third game without a loss by beating Jefferson, 13-2.

Art Banos was the hitting star with a homer, double and single in four trips. George Ambrosio struck out seven while allowing eight hits. Gary Podesta's triple was the big blow for Jefferson.

Olympia
At Olympia, there were over 50 children who took permission slips home so they could attend the carnival at Marchbanks. Attending: Gregory Bundros, Joel Derish, Mark Derish, Robert Bertolani, Thomas Bundros, Bobby Fraher, Phil Fraher, Nancy Fraher, Nicky Diferterio, Lee Orginos, Barry Lamron, Larry Karp, Ernie Massola, Peter Markovich, Michael Markovich, Ritchie Piercy, Wayland Secret, Anthony Rivallo, Clay Stringer, Bobby Plant, Judy Majourau, Neil Stipanich, John Hutchinson, Kathleen Bertolani, Wayne Clapper, Kathy Orginos, Joel Wine, Natalie Plotnick, Karen Wine, Craig Morton, Randi Morton, Joelle Kimbrell, Ricky Silver and Neena Nocita.

Gary Majourau, Judy Majourau, Eernie Massola, Bill Kirchen, Phil Fraher and Steven Evans participated in the fishing trip at Lake Merced last Wednesday.

Olympia School played host to the Garden Village softball team this week. Garden Village won, 23-9. The Olympia team, led by the pitching of Ernie Massola, Martin and Mike Seelig showed improvement. The line-up: Pat Desmond, Ernie Massola, Frank Cesena, Terry Pope, Wayland Secret, Mike Seelig, Martin Seelig, John Hutchison and Larry Karp.

Arts and crafts have been a big success. Michael Markovich, Marjorie Markovich, Linda Taylor and Judy Majourau did a very good job making notebook pads, and Kristine Larsen, Neil Deffetous, Tommy Panages, Anne Christopher, Pamela Christopher, Ronnie Restivo, Elizabeth Panages, Ruth Goldman, Melissa Panages, Lee Orginos, Martha Kerr, Bobby Plant, Marjorie Markovich, and Judy Majourau did very nice finger-painting.

Following entered the Jr. Olympics from Olympia: Rupert Wall, Ernie Massola, Bobby Plant, Bobby Niklewicz, Neil Stipanich, Frank Cesena, Lynne Coleman, Dana Borelli, Lesley Ritchie, Rosalind Coleman and Martha Kerr.

Crocker School
Betty Fontenot, 13, defeated Mary Guillary, 13, in the finals on the girls' checker tournament. Betty won three straight games to clinch the title in the 3 out of 5 series.

Congratulations are in order for nice work in arts and crafts. Donna Leindecker, 9, and Bobby Botai, 9, have done excellent work.

Tumbling recently was the feature attraction. Coach Mary Comstock says Michale Kenny, 8, and Judy Ricci, 11, will more than likely be in the tumbling show. These two children are very advanced for their age.

A REMINDER, KIDS! Don't forget the Talent Show. Try-outs every Monday at 11 a.m., or call Mrs. Irvine, DE 3-6165.

Jefferson Elementary
Jefferson Recreation Club had a rehearsal for the talent show in August. A great deal of talent has been displayed at Jefferson Elementary. Donna Dillaboy has a nice speaking voice, and will be our announcer. Cindy Balbi has a beautiful voice, Gary Sanguinetti is exceptional, and Gary Sanguinetti also is talented.

In softball, Jefferson beat Lincoln, 16-14. It was a very close game—we just managed to win in the last inning. Hitting honors went to Bill Ucelli, who got 4 for 5. Mike Roval did a nice job of relief pitching.

In arts and crafts, we have been painting and doing crayon work. Some of the results are outstanding. Credit goes to three helpers—Linda Callan, Madelyn Martinelli and Donna Dillaboy.

An unofficial ping pong tournament was held with Joe Bolentini winning.

Lacayo are undecided which one should make a pin or key chain for their Mother. Next week we will make mosaics.

Our checker champion is in the 12-or-under classification is Danny Craig. He defeated Chantal St. Gassies in a two-of-three match. In shuffleboard finals are Mike Cagari and Danny Craig. The ping pong semi-finals: Jim Kearney vs. Bob Molossi and Barry Morgan vs. Danny Craig. Paddle pool finals will pit the winner of Mary Smith vs. Jerry Senkir against Jimmy Kearney.

In the 13-and-over classification, we have Bob Wisman vs. the winner of Bill Hopman—Don Miller in ping pong finals. Don Miller, George Ojakian and Tim Curtin lead the free throw contest with 20 out of 25. George Ojakian has 18 in a row.

Our softball team won their third game without a loss by beating Jefferson, 13-2.

Art Banos was the hitting star with a homer, double and single in four trips. George Ambrosio struck out seven while allowing eight hits. Gary Podesta's triple was the big blow for Jefferson.

Presently we have paddle pool and chess tournaments for indoor sport enthusiasts. Winners of the playoffs for boys are: John Crowhurst, Burt Treaner, Hermie Alcade, Dan Bottaro, Milt Boegel and Al Rawley. The girls winners of the first round are Jan Taylor, Sharon Cassidy, Susan Espina, Carol Lawrence, Margie Felsner and Joan Crowhurst.

Boys' A Class champion is Dan Luciano. He defeated Luther Massey, 21-11, and 21-9. Dan will represent Colma at the city-wide tournament as will Joe Kavanagh for the B Class.

Garden Village defeated Colma's B team, 13-2, in a softball game. Colma's only highlight was Joe Kavanagh, who hit two home runs.

Marchbanks Park

The new ping pong table in the clubhouse has attracted a lot of "experts." The current tournament has seen some very close and exciting games. Among those who are doing very well are: Kelly Olivera, Tom Decker, Mike Wills, Pete Garcia, and Mike Kennedy.

In arts and crafts classes, the children are working on a variety of projects. Lucille Watson made a nice copper plaque, while six-year-old Carol Hubman did some fine aluminum tooling. Rosemarie Stabile was one of the first to make clay jewelry. Marbelizing paper has been a popular activity, and Paul Craig achieved some interesting effects with this technique.

Colma Playground
Kids with sunburned noses need not apply, but all others are welcome to enter our peanut rolling contest. Friday, August 2, at 3:30, we will award the child with the most manipulative prowess! Another event that day will be a soft drink race. All contestants are to bring a baby nipple and large thirsts. Children who have the above qualifications and are of the ages 7 to 15 are eligible to sign up for one or both of these activities.

Presently we have paddle pool and chess tournaments for indoor sport enthusiasts. Winners of the playoffs for boys are: John Crowhurst, Burt Treaner, Hermie Alcade, Dan Bottaro, Milt Boegel and Al Rawley. The girls winners of the first round are Jan Taylor, Sharon Cassidy, Susan Espina, Carol Lawrence, Margie Felsner and Joan Crowhurst.

Boys' A Class champion is Dan Luciano. He defeated Luther Massey, 21-11, and 21-9. Dan will represent Colma at the city-wide tournament as will Joe Kavanagh for the B Class.

Garden Village defeated Colma's B team, 13-2, in a softball game. Colma's only highlight was Joe Kavanagh, who hit two home runs.

Colma Community Center Crowded For Open House

Summer recreation group at Colma Community Center gave an "Open House and Children's Party" last week, attracting a full house.

Mothers and friends of the children viewed exhibits and a playlet, heard poetry recitals, and talked with the instructors. Exhibits included octopus dolls, tooled copper plaques, booklets of drawings, and dried weed arrangements.

Short talks were given by Mrs. Irene Chessman, Mrs. Ruth Fisher, Mrs. Kay Bradshaw and Mrs. M. Pauline Brown.

Colma center's summer schedule closed Wednesday, according to Mrs. Brown.

Geno Hurls 6-4 Win For Colmans
Righthander Dick Geno's 6-4 win over the Westlake Rockets last weekend kept Colma's horsehoeders tied for first in the Peninsula Junior Baseball League.

Geno, who fanned six and walked four, was backed solidly at the plate. Paul Clima's triple and single drove in four Colma runs. Jack Fuentes also helped with a double and a single.

Colma, unbeaten in three games, faces Burlingame this Saturday morning at Washington park in a showdown battle for the lead.

DC DUMP AND 'PACIFICA' POLITICS

Details of a desperate plot by a few elements from the Coastside to thwart operation of Daly City's fill and cover garbage site near Mussel Rock appear in this issue.

The strategem is based on two conditions: that the Coast highway is abandoned and that the communities by the sea are successful in their effort to incorporate as the city of Pacifica.

Should these two conditions be fulfilled, the scavengers would then be forced to route their trucks down Edgemoor road, through the streets of the City of Pacifica.

It is at this point that a few angry little minds see a way to thwart the garbage operation at Mussel Rock by making cost of transporting the garbage prohibitive.

They would, under the announced plot, stop scavenger truck drivers for every conceivable violation of traffic laws, and probably a few not on the books. They would assign a cop to every truck passing through their sedate limits and nail the truck driver if he so much as "went one inch over the white line."

This, they feel, would soon strangle the coast dump operation by forcing the company to pay excessive traffic violation fines almost daily.

It is a small-minded and absurd plan and we are confident that it might merit the attention of higher law making authorities should it be put into practice.

Essentially, the plan is a political device to sway Coastside residents to the incorporation cause, and it should be viewed in that light.

In plain words, the minds that fabricated this reprehensible plan are telling Coastside, "Vote for incorporation or face a dump in your back yard."

It is a political maneuver that does not speak well for the other backers of incorporation, since they are a part of anything done by their leaders.

We have no argument with incorporation for the Coastside. It may be the answer to those communities' problems and we wish them success in their endeavor should "Pacifica" become a reality.

But in the process of putting over their incorporation election, we feel the health and welfare of Daly City should not be made a political grapple point.

Years have been spent in an effort to acquire a fill and cover dump site where Daly City can be assured of a place to dispose of its garbage for a long-term period.

The site has been chosen and from all studies it will be an adequate one, operated under recognized fill and cover methods that will not blight the landscape.

Coastside incorporation enthusiasts should put the dampers on their over-zealous campaign managers. Running one city will be tough enough without trying to run the affairs of another.

Strictly For Veterans

Questions—Answers

Q—I am a disabled veteran taking vocational rehabilitation training on-the-job. If I get an injury during training—one not related to my service-connected disability—would I be allowed to receive VA outpatient care?

A—Yes. You would be entitled to outpatient care if you needed it to prevent an interruption to your training—even though it would be for an injury not connected with your military service.

Q—If I change the beneficiaries of my GI insurance, do I have to notify the present beneficiaries that I am making them off the list?

A—No. They need not be notified. Selection of beneficiaries is entirely up to you.

Q—Is there any deadline date for starting school under the War Orphans Education program?

A—There is no single deadline date. Sons and daughters of deceased war veterans may begin at any time, so long as they are between 18 and 23 years of age, and, under certain circumstances it's possible to begin before 18 and continue after 23.

Q—May I go to school overseas under the Korean GI Bill?

A—Yes, provided you attend an accredited institution of higher learning and take a course approved by VA.

CIRCUS BOY — A special opening day circus for kiddies at the California State Fair and Exposition, August 28th-September 8th, will feature

STORMY quest for a fill and cover dump off Coast highway near Mussel Rock will be climaxed in two weeks when Daly City Scavenger company begins operations in the earthquake fault area. Al Sereni, Scavenger president, here views the main canyon to be used. Home building is impractical there because of the earthquake factor. Garbage trucks will be routed away from Coastside communities, and Sereni says the operation will not mar the scenic beauty of the region. Coastside, rejecting Sereni's bid for a dump behind Linda Mar, even appealed to Governor Knight to block the Mussel Rock site.

In reporting on the development of atomic energy in 1952, the Britannica Book of the Year begins, "The number of nations known to possess atomic weapons were increased to three when Great Britain exploded its first atomic bomb at 8 a.m. on Oct. 3, 1952. . . . It was the 36th nuclear explosion in the history of the world. The United States previously staged 32, and the U.S.S.R. 3.

In the 1957 yearbook, the article begins, "The military and the peaceful uses of atomic energy continue their unequal contest for supremacy in 1956. . . . International disarmament had no discernible progress. . . . But atoms for peace made some notable gains.

The Daly City Public Library and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch have books on the peacetime uses of atomic energy written in a style non-specialist can read and understand. "You and the Atom" by Gerald Wendt outlines the many potential peacetime uses of atomic energy as well as its great destructive power.

Information about the atomic energy program of the United States is given in "Report on the Atom" by Gordon Dean, the former chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission. The author surveys the first 10 years of the atomic age. Outstanding events and personalities of atomic history are also discussed in "Atoms and People" by Ralph Lapp.

Other titles on atomic energy include David Dietz' "Atomic Energy in the Coming Era," Joseph Kugelmann's "J. Robert Oppenheimer and the Atomic Story," G. R. Harrison's "Atoms in Action," Niningers' "Minerals For Atomic Energy," Laura Fermi's "Atoms in the Family," and the recent "Atomic Quest" by Arthur H. Compton.

A number of recent books on the atoms are also available for young people. They include: "Atoms Today and Tomorrow" by Margaret Hyde, R. D. Potter's "Young People's Book of Atomic Energy," Ira Freeman's "All About the Atom," and R. F. Yates' "Atomic Experiments for Boys."

These and many allied books are to be found in your Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, and the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch, 34 Park Plaza drive in Westlake shopping center. Remember, your library has something for everyone. Come in and browse around sometime soon.

SIX DALY CITY MARINES EYE SUMMER CAMP

Six Daly City men will be among Marine Corps reservists from the entire Bay Area who will depart soon for two weeks of annual field training.

The Peninsula's own 7th Infantry Battalion, headquartered in San Bruno, will be the nucleus of the first amphibious operation made by an all-reserve landing team. The 7th will be supported by Treasure Island and Alameda reserve units.

San Bruno chamber of commerce will stage a big sendoff for the 7th this Saturday at 2 o'clock. Mayor Robert Price and officials from other Peninsula cities will be on hand for the departure ceremony. Music will be supplied by the 7th Infantry band and the Caledonian Bagpipe band of San Francisco.

Daly City reservists headed for the encampment are: 1st Lt. Paul M. Flaherty, 111 South Mayfair avenue; T. Sgt. James W. Sunderland, 89 Marshall way; T. Sgt. Daniel J. Stamm, 726 Niantic avenue; Sgt. James R. Bergstrom, 40 Miriam street; Pvt. Charles S. Brobeck, 349 Niantic avenue; and Pvt. Philip D. Green, 631 Manila way.

Slow Drivers Can Be Menace, Too, CHP Points Out

Slow drivers who fail to keep right on multi-lane highways are traffic law violators, according to the California Highway Patrol.

"Section 525.1 of the California Vehicle Code requires a driver who is driving slower than the normal speed of traffic to keep in the right hand lane or as near the right edge or curb as is practical," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "There would be less congestion and accidents on our freeways if all drivers would heed this rule."

"Frequently, cars pile up behind the driver who is loafing along in the left or passing lane setting up accident potentials for every driver who endeavors to move with the normal flow of traffic," Caldwell stated. "Frequently, the slow driver who sets up the hazardous situation is not involved in the accident, nor is he aware of the consequences of his act."

Morgan, Weibel At Stanford Meet

Daly City school superintendents Ed Morgan and H. Z. Weibel are attending the first in a series of clinics at Stanford university, sponsored by the California Association of School Administrators.

More than 100 school superintendents are attending the week-long session, which ends this Friday. Majority are from California, although registrations have been received from as far east as Indiana.

Subjects being discussed are instructional improvement, effective community procedures, planning school buildings, development of administrative personnel, and school staff and community morale.

'Weight In Papers' Asked For Cubs Expansion Drive

"Bring your weight in papers," ask the Daly City Colma Lions club as they prepare to launch their paper drive for Cub Pack 244 this Saturday.

Paper may be brought to any one of the following five schools this Saturday: Westlake, Benjamin Franklin, Crocker, Colma and Woodrow Wilson.

Those who are unable to deliver their paper to one of the schools Saturday may drop it off any day through August 17 at 140 Valley street.

The Valley street collection office will be open daily from 9 to 5 through August 17.

Sponsored by the Lions club, purpose of the drive is to gain funds for expansion of the cub pack. An additional three dens are sought by next fall to augment the three dens now operating.

motorists must stay in the right hand lane except when preparing to turn left or while overtaking and passing another vehicle," he concluded. "It is well to keep in mind the slow driver who persists in driving in the left hand lane is subject to a traffic citation."

New FHA Move Would Up Home Costs Some $400

New "minimum property standards" now being proposed for use by the Federal Housing Administration will add from $400 to $600 more to the cost of the Bay Area homes according to John L. Hennessy, executive vice president of the Associated Home Builders of the Greater Eastbay.

Hennessy expressed the view on returning Monday from Chicago where he took part in a meeting of builder experts affiliated with chapters of the National Association of Home Builders. The meeting was called especially to analyze the proposed new standards which will be, in effect, the FHA's building code.

Hennessy noted that the proposed rules would result in a centralization of authority in the FHA Washington office and would practically eliminate all discretionary authority from the regional offices.

"This would be particularly difficult for the Bay Area. Here officials of the regional office have been able to cut red tape because of the competence of their staff and homes have been built that would otherwise have been bogged down in weeks or months of paper work," Hennessy said.

He noted also that the new code would set up many standards which would have little application in this area.

"We are not trying to imply that the new standards are deliberately inflationary but full analysis shows that they would add new pressures to housing costs and the paper work they would require could well force small volume home builders out of business," he declared.

DC Police Nab Youth, 19, On Felony Hit-Run

A 22-year-old San Francisco woman, struck down by a hit-run driver Friday night on Coast highway, faces possible amputation of her leg in St. Mary's hospital this week.

Critically injured was Georgina M. Becker, North Sacramento, who was going south on a motorcycle when she was jolted.

Booked after he gave San Francisco officers a "phony" story of being in an accident near Twin Peaks was Richard L. Irvine, 183 Arleta street, a gas station attendant. Daly City police charged him with felony hit-run driving. Preliminary hearings in municipal court was scheduled yesterday. Irvine was held in lieu of $1500 cash or $3000 bond.

Irvine, 19, who said he "was scared and didn't know what to do," called San Francisco officers, claiming he "had run into someone" at 17th and Market street. Explaining that he hadn't seen anyone, the youth was "uncertain" of what happened. Police found bloodstains and pieces of flesh on his car. But, unable to locate the victim, police released him.

A few minutes later, Daly City police informed the San Francisco department of the Coast accident. Officers then staked out Irvine's home. When confronted with the facts of the Coast incident, Irvine confessed, according to the report. The youth was going north on the highway, one half mile south of Skyline, when he rammed the motorcycle.

Two witnesses, both Coastside, identified Irvine's 1949 car as the hit-run vehicle. They were Don Olsen, 293 Junita, Vallejo, and William LaForest, 227 Modoc place, Vallejo.

Francis To Attend Public Utility Meet

Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo will attend a two-day meeting, which is to be held in Monterey this Thursday and Friday, of the State Assembly interim committee on public utilities and corporations, of which he is a member.

Committee members will hold hearings on small boat harbors following an organizational meeting.

The committee was directed by the 1957 State Legislature to make recommendations for future state action and desirable legislation in the fields of marine affairs, public utilities, corporations, aviation and rapid transit.

Westlake Property Group Cancels Meet

Westlake Improvement association president Cass Norton announced today that the group will not conduct another regular open meeting until September 2.

The association is unable to gather a quorum for the scheduled session this coming Monday. A regular meeting has not been held since June, because of vacation absences.

When meetings are resumed in September, the association's major project will be the drive to secure traffic signals for two dangerous intersections on Skyline boulevard.

Many Kids Try City-Wide Talent Show Auditions

Under the guidance of Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Catherine Irvine, auditions for the coming city-wide playground talent show are now in progress.

Auditions were held last week at Crocker School playground with 40 children present. The following were auditioned: Cheryl Newman, Joan Price, Judith Streeter, Chuckie Leindecker, Donna Lee Leindecker, Pauline Hackett, Ronald Hackett, Donald Hackett, Donela Hackett, Maureen Milroy, Jackie Streeter, Otto Villias, Mario Marino.

Tape recordings are being made of instrumentalists, singers, junior story tellers, tap dancers, actors and actresses. All children from the ages of 5 to 18 years are invited to participate.

Auditions are also being held at Colma School playground, Jefferson School playground, Garden Village School playground, Westlake Park, Westlake School and the War Memorial building.

Children wishing additional information should contact recreation leaders in their areas. The playground Talent Show will be conducted during the second week of August.

With the possibility that the Asiatic influenza, which has already broken out in widely scattered sections of the United States, may reach epidemic proportions later this year, a pilot study to learn how this disease is transmitted is being started at the Livermore Veterans Administration Hospital, the Veterans Administration announced today.

A group of VA medical personnel arrived in Livermore this week to set up arrangements for the research project. They included Dr. Ross McLean, director of professional services at Baltimore VA hospital, who will remain here as project co-ordinator; Dr. Charles Chapple, chief of clinical studies of the research and education section of the VA Department of Medicine and Surgery; Dr. Joseph Stokes Jr., University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Richard L. Riley, Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health; and Dr. Clifford A. Bachrach, of VA Reports and Statistics branch in Washington.

The primary object of the VA study is to learn the protective value of air disinfection in influenza, Dr. McLean explained.

Selection of the Livermore VA Hospital for the research was based on two factors, Dr. McLean said. Livermore is the geographical center of the area in which the disease was first noted in the United States, and the VA hospital is one of the few in the country which is equipped with ultra-violet lights throughout.

"We are anxious to learn the effect of ultra-violet irradiation on the virus of the Asiatic influenza," Dr. McLean said. "The virus has been identified and its blood reaction known."

While the Asiatic influenza is a mild disease, there would be an expected incidence rate of about 30 per cent if it should reach epidemic proportion, Dr. McLean said.

The Asiatic influenza reported so far has no gastro-intestinal symptoms, he said. The disease, which lasts a short time only, is marked by aches and pains with a mild fever. The disease usually runs its course in from 12 to 36 hours, he said, and may be followed by several days of a tired and weak feeling.

The disease, which has already struck in Japan, Formosa and a large part of continental Asia, was first brought to California by travelers on ships from the Orient. Later it spread to a number of other sections of the mid-West and the Atlantic seaboard, and in most instances was directly traced to travelers from the Pacific Coast.

Vet Spokesman Clarifies GI Loan Procedure

Conceding that in most places GI loans are as scarce as hen's teeth, Floyd D. Granger, San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer, points out at least two Veterans Administration moves to liberalize veterans' loans which may be worth keeping in mind if the program gains impetus again.

These policy statements concern: (a) veterans who sell their GI-financed homes because of a job change, and (b) widows of certain veterans.

The owner of a GI-financed property who sells it in order to move to a new and better job in a different city may be entitled to new GI loan eligibility, the VA announced recently. Restoration of eligibility formerly was made only if the transfer was beyond the veteran's control; the new rule applies to voluntary transfers.

However, the requirement still holds that to obtain a second entitlement the veteran must relieve the VA of liability on the first loan.

World War II veterans should bear in mind that the GI loan program has only one more year to run for them. Already extended once by Congress, it now faces an application cutoff date of July 25, 1958. The loan must be closed on or before July 25, 1959.

Korea veterans may apply for VA-guaranteed loans until January 31, 1965.

These deadlines apply to eligible veterans' widows just as they would to the veteran they survived, Granger emphasized.

He went on to say that if a veteran bought a house with a GI loan, and later died of a service-connected condition, his widow would be entitled to another GI home loan. The fact that the veteran had used his eligibility in this case, Granger said.

He offered to supply interested persons with further information at the Veterans' Service Office, Courthouse, Redwood City.

Temple Judea Appoints Rabbi

Rabbi Irving F. Reichert, Rabbi Emeritus of Temple Emanu El in San Francisco, has been appointed as new spiritual leader of Temple Judea, the board of directors announced today.

Rabbi Reichert comes to the pulpit as an internationally-known leader in Jewish and communal affairs. For 18 years he was the Rabbi of Temple Emanu El in San Francisco, from which position he retired in 1948. During the past nine years he has devoted himself to writing and lecturing throughout this country and abroad.

He is a past president of the Board of Rabbis of Northern California and was for many years a member of the executive board of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. He has served as honorary president of the San Francisco section of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, as quarterly chairman of the Commonwealth Club of California, and on the boards of directors of the Council for Civic Unity, Community Chest, and American Civil Liberties Union. He has been noted as an arbitrator for labor disputes submitted to the United States Conciliation Service. Among his publications are "The High Cost of Peace," "Judaism and the American Jew," and scores of contributions to national periodicals.

Temple Judea was organized in 1953 to serve the growing Jewish community in this area. In accepting the pulpit, Rabbi Reichert said, "I gladly embrace this opportunity to serve this young progressive congregation and to assist it in realizing its spiritual and communal objectives. This congregation is vigorous and dynamic and possessed of an enthusiasm that is rarely encountered today. Many of its members are my former confidants. Its leadership has vision and courage. It is my conviction that it is filling a vital need in the growing population of Northern California, and I am happy to serve it to the best of my ability."

Crocker-Pershing Spokesmen Cite Dance 'Success'

"I know that everyone who came had a wonderful time," was Mrs. Eugene Hedrick's statement following Crocker-Pershing PTA's dance last Friday at Daly City War Memorial building.

"Results of this dance certainly make it clear we should have another," said Mrs. Jack White, with Mrs. Louis Liberati agreeing and adding that plans to sponsor a teenager dance would also be worked out.

John Hall, of Frankfort street, who came with his wife, Mildred, remarked, "The dance was certainly a swell idea, as generally fathers are the ones to baby-sit while you girls go to the meetings."

The music covered a wide variety of dances with everything from a fox-trot to samba. Highlight was a Charleston, danced by Mrs. Louis Liberati and Richard Watson of the Daly City recreation department.

The coffee kidnaps are still going full swing, with Mrs. Oliver Poncia and Mrs. Francis Fazzendin the latest hostesses.

DC Garden Club Fourth Annual Flower Show

Daly City Garden Club's fourth annual flower show planned for September 15, offers sections for the display of outdoor plants, indoor plants, cut flowers, and flower arrangements.

A special junior division is open for competition between age groups—for those under six, six to ten, ten to twelve, and twelve to sixteen.

In the horticulture division, any junior may exhibit one stem or stalk of any garden flower raised and grown by him; a potted plant, to be in his possession at least three months; "Just for fun"—any plant grown in water, such as potato vine or carrot tops; a dish garden suitable for a small table not over six inches in diameter.

In the flower arranging division, themes have been chosen for the juniors as follows: "My Vacation," featuring materials collected from mountain or seashore, "Mother's Birthday," and "Flowers for the Teacher."

Entry blanks and schedules may be obtained by calling Mrs. Andrew Bretz Jr. at PL 6-2719.

SHRUBS FOR AUGUST BLOOM

Flowering shrubs, the everlasting joy of the home gardener, may be selected to lend late summer glamour to your home landscaping. Although most flowering shrubs bloom in spring and early summer, your local nurseryman has several which bloom in August, giving the garden planner an opportunity to enjoy almost perpetual color.

Shrubs are the basic part of foundation planting around a California home. If the gardener keeps his plan simple and chooses shrubs with regard to their full-grown size and appearance, the result will be permanent carefree beauty.

The California Association of Nurserymen recommends the following late-blooming shrubs to all gardeners in the state, except those in the high mountainous regions.

A most popular late-blooming shrub is common myrtle (myrtus communis), a small-leaved, rounded plant which is useful as a hedge as well as for foundation planting. This dark-green shrub produces white flowers in August and September. The blossoms are the forerunners of half-inch bluish black berries.

Glossy abelia (abelia grandiflora), which is the most popular abelia, is suitable for either sunny or shady areas, the glossy abelia grows to about 4 to 6 feet and, although it can be pruned to a compact shape, grows naturally in graceful

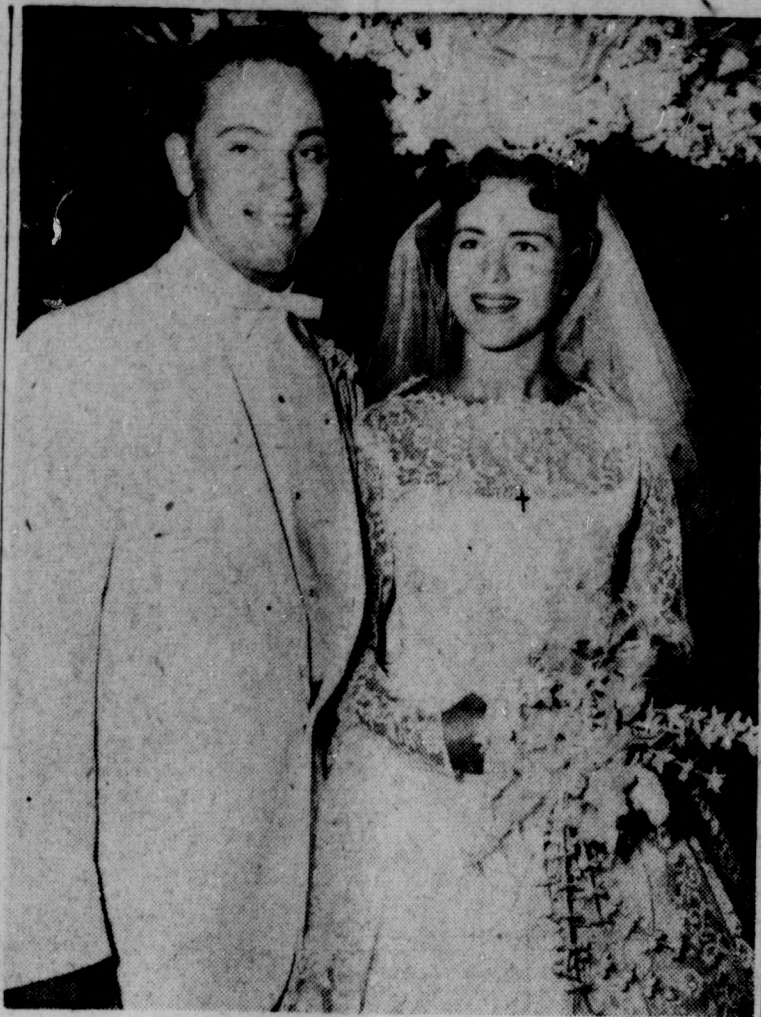

Starkovich Family Back From Vacation

Cubmaster Thomas Starkovich of Pack 244 is back at the helm after a month's vacation with his family to the Midwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Starkovich, daughter Dianne, and son Jeffrey, enjoyed a family reunion in Minnesota. En route, they visited the Badlands and Black Hills of South Dakota, and Yellowstone park in Wyoming.

arches. The fragrant flowers bloom from July to October. Two hypericum species are available for late bloom. Hypericum pulchrum henryi gives lovely golden yellow 2-inch flowers from July to October. This low, bushy, semi-deciduous shrub grows best in the warmer areas of California. In the high mountain regions it has a tendency to look shabby during cold winters. This hypericum is sun-loving, but isn't choosy about the soil in which it lives.

The other hypericum, h. moserianum, differs in size and time of bloom. Because it grows even lower and more bushy, it can aptly be used as a foundation shrub. It blooms in July and August. Another very low grower (h. calycinum) is a popular ground cover.

OREGON University student Don Delbon, ex-Jefferson High basketball star from Brisbane, and Barbara Jean Wheeler, also a Jefferson graduate, repeated vows recently in San Francisco. The couple honeymooned in Southern California.

Don Delbon Weds Barbara J. Wheeler

Donald A. Delbon, Jefferson High's All-Northern California basketball player, recently exchanged vows with Barbara Jean Wheeler of San Francisco. Seventh Avenue Presbyterian church was the site of the ceremony, with the Rev. Walter Subke officiating.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Walden A. Delbon, of Brisbane, Don attends University of Oregon, where he is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Wheeler of San Francisco. Also a Jefferson alumnus, she works for Bank of America.

For the ceremony Barbara wore a ballerina length dress of white lace over pink. She carried stephanotis and white orchids. Marilyn Delbon, the groom's sister, was maid of honor, with Marianne Zanone and Beverly Miller the bridesmaids.

Larry Blanchard, the benedict's basketball teammate, stood by him as best man. Gary Ryan and Richard Trantham were ushers.

Reception in the church hall, beautifully decorated in a garden theme, was attended by 250 relatives and friends.

For her going-away costume, the new Mrs. Delbon wore a gray, silk shantung suit with white accessories.

The couple have returned to make their home in San Francisco after a week-long honeymoon in Southern California.

GARDENER'S CHECKLIST

By THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF NURSERYMEN

1. Protect your garden hose and add years to its life. Use a hose reel or hanger.
2. If flies are a problem around your patio or barbecue area, regular use of the new fly baits will help control them.
3. Dichondra should be fertilized regularly. Liquid or organic fertilizer should be used.
4. Use a multi-purpose dust to control Diabrotica beetles and caterpillars.
5. Use a lawn sprayer for quick and easy application of liquid fertilizers, and lawn moth, ant, and earwig insecticides.

Local Girl Scouts Back From Sonora Summer Encampment

The first group of Girl Scouts have returned from their session of camping at the Girl Scout Established Camp at Sonora.

The camping opportunities and Girl Scouting itself are due to the large support they receive from the United Crusade. This year a Senior Camp has been established at Sonora.

The girls in the Senior group were taken to Clark Fork, about 35 miles from the regular camp, where they enjoyed a short stay packing-in out in the wilderness.

Girls attending the second section, July 15 through July 27, were:

In the Tommyknockers group: Susan Green, Judy Johnson, Barbara Medzian, Darian Ryan and Kathie Schoenfeld of Daly City. In the Prospektors: Shirley Anderson and Esther Durham of Brisbane and Sue Dupont and Margaret Clark of Colma. Orediggers: Ruth Clayton of Brisbane, Cathy Cubie, Marilyn Downey, Patricia Weeden of Daly City and Celeste Hargrove of Colma. Claim Jumpers: Mary Clark, Marilyn Lewis and Jean Murphy of Colma, Kathleen Hansen of Daly City and Judith Lipton of Brisbane.

Ernest, Lynn Ward Feted in Brisbane

An evening of dancing and refreshments marked the recent double birthday celebration for Ernest (12) and Lynn (13) Ward at their Brisbane home, 460 Sierra Point road. Guests were Nancy Smith, Marilyn Waits, Diana Johnson, Harry Olson, Ronnie Cook and Billy Gillette.

Weekly 'Socials' At OLPB Bolster Festival Funds

The Festival Committee for Our Lady of Perpetual Help church is holding weekly socials in the school auditorium at 80 Wellington avenue.

These socials will be held each Saturday night until the Festival, with proceeds used to defray expenses connected with the Festival.

Games will be played, starting at 8:30 p.m., and refreshments are available. The public is invited.

Plans for the Fall Festival are being formed at a series of parish meetings conducted by George Calegari, general chairman. All parishioners are encouraged to attend these meetings.

B'nai Israel To Form Sisterhood

Congregation B'nai Israel of Daly City, a conservative congregation, has announced the formation of a new sisterhood.

Rabbi Solomon A. Shore said rapid growth of the Hebrew school emphasizes the need for this group.

First meeting of the new sisterhood will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the synagogue, 67 Los Banos avenue.

An invitation has been extended for all interested persons to attend. Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Jack Bresler, JU 8-1333, Mrs. Kurt Goldstrom, JU 8-3547, or Mrs. Paul Lichtman, PL 6-1721.

Educational TV

Recently in our state legislature, a bill was passed which should prove to be an extremely important step forward in the progress of educational television in California. Simply stated, the new law permits public schools of the state to produce, participate in and otherwise employ educational television. Ahead is a staggering amount of ground-work and organization before any concrete results will come from the new law.

To learn for ourselves firsthand how our own educational television channel will participate, we talked to James Day, general manager of KQED, who gave us the following exclusive statement:

"The action of the legislature makes it possible for the first time for California schools to investigate the promising uses of this new medium in teaching children in classrooms. Other states have been experimenting for several years—with interesting results. We plan to use their experience in planning a small experimental project in the Bay Area. But there are lots of problems that must be solved before we can expect any extensive use in this area."

Without a doubt, an immense challenge faces the pioneers in educational television. Great strides have been made, but the surface has only been scratched. With the many children clamoring to be educated—by 1965 it is estimated that 350,000 more teachers will be needed—television can be the magic that opens the door to a bright new world of knowledge for all.

Kiddies Corner

An outstanding children's program over NBC's KRON-TV is "Zoo Parade," telecast every Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Featuring authentic films taken all over the world, the program acquaints youngsters with the habits and lives of members of the animal kingdom. This Sunday's telecast in color, entitled "Jackson Hole Wildlife," will show wild animals in their natural surroundings at majestic Grand Teton National Park, Wyoming.

CURVY Konda Mussman, "Fiesta Dream Girl," and Sandy's Dot, a two-year-old from Sacramento, will be on hand daily for racing at Bay Meadows during the nine-day run of the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta. Spectacle opens this Friday. No races will be held this Sunday due to state law.

SM County Fair Offers Variety For All Ages

The San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta with its many and diversified divisions and contests for juniors, caters to the young people of the county as well as their parents. Not only are there over 430 youngsters participating in the Junior Livestock and Agriculture divisions but there are also 41 entries in the Junior Floriculture Division and special contests are attracting 130 children in the county.

Monday, August 5, will be Newspaper Boys Day. The newspaper boys of San Mateo county will hold a contest to determine the top newspaper boys in the county. The contest will be divided into three divisions: boxing papers, throwing papers, team boxing and throwing papers. First, second and third prizes of $10, $5 and $2.50 will be awarded to winners in the boxing and throwing contest. In the team boxing and throwing contest, each boy on the winning team will receive $5. Approximately 1200 entries from newspaper-boys all over the county have been received.

On Saturday, August 10, there will be two contests. One will be the Peninsula Optimists' Clubs' Mutt Show for boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 14. Rules and qualifications for the pet show are: all dogs must be equipped with a strong collar and leash, must be kept at a reasonable distance from each other, can be entered in one class only, and must be on the parade grounds by 1:30 p.m. Classes to be judged are: most mixed breed, smallest dog (over 1 year) best groomed, whitest, blackest, heaviest, most sympathetic eyes, most spots, longest ears, longest tail, shortest tail, largest dog, best trick dog, oldest dog, and best dressed dog. There is a class for every kind of non-pedigreed, non-thoroughbred.

Also on Saturday, August 10, the Regional Baton Contest will be held at the Fiesta. All contestants are registered NBTA twirlers. The Solo competition starts at 10 a.m. and the contestants are divided into age groups: 8 and under, 9 to 10, 11 to 12, 13 to 15, and 16 and over.

For those who like to watch dance exhibitions there are many dance groups and schools who will perform during the Fiesta. Among the many dance groups are: Mary Hewitt Dance Time, Shipley Smith Dance Modes, Lorna Fordyce Dance Time, Les Williams Show, Maggie Sheets Dance Review and Leota's Studio of the Dance.

Whatever the whole family fancies in the way of entertainment and exhibits they'll find it at the San Mateo County Floral Fiesta, August 2 through 10.

Westlaker Heads 'Everyman' Cast

Mark Hein, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hein, 623 South Mayfair avenue, will be seen in a leading role of the San Francisco State College Theatre Workshop presentation of a new version of the morality play, "Everyman." The only performance will be given this Thursday night at 8:30 in the college theatre.

The workshop offers an opportunity for pre-college students to augment their high school dramatics training with a summer of concentrated study and practice, and to return to their schools in the fall better equipped as leaders and contributors in their local theatrical programs.

Mark, a sophomore at Lick-Wilmerding high school, comments that the workshop "is extremely interesting and highly educational."

Police Capture Lumber Thieves After Stakeout

A "police stakeout" ended the week-long capers of two lumber thieves late Thursday night in the freeway construction yard near Skyline and Edgemoor.

Oldest of the culprits, Vince Nicolsia, 18, of San Francisco, pleaded guilty in municipal court and was sentenced to 90 days in jail or $500 fine. His companion, 16, an Oakland youth, was turned over to juvenile officials.

Officers George Brooks and Richard Sims grabbed the two youths after waiting three hours in the area. The wayward were driving a half-ton truck, their usual hauling device.

The raids, made nightly last week, netted the pair more than 100 pieces of plywood. Nicolsia said they sold the plywood to "several individuals in San Francisco."

Nursing Course At Adult School

Galileo Adult School announces the opening of a new class in Vocational Nursing on Wednesday, September 4, in response to the demand in San Francisco hospitals for licensed vocational nurses with one year of approved training.

Men and women applicants who are in good health, have two years of high school, and are citizens of the United States should apply immediately by telephoning PR 6-5018.

This one-year tuition-free training program, which prepares the student for the State Board examination for the Licensed Vocational Nurse, is offered from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday during the first 4½ months of the training. The last 7½ months of the training are offered at San Francisco hospital and at Mt. Zion hospital. Those who are employed may begin the training in the evening class, which meets from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Galileo Adult School's training program—San Francisco's only program approved by State Board and the only program in Northern California with national accreditation—offered as a public service by San Francisco Public Schools.
